STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions in the World Field
For the Year Ending December 31, 1978

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Three Million Strong.—Membership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church passed a milestone during 1978; during the second quarter recorded membership surpassed 3 million. By the end of the year, as seen in this report, membership stood at 3,117,535. This figure includes the latest available figures for China and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 81,168. The world growth rate for 1978 was 5.69% compared with 4.95% for 1977.

The reported number of workers in conference organizations and institutions rose during 1978 from 79,462 to 80,074. North American workers constitute 41.3% of the total. The smallest number, 2.5%, are employed in the Afro-Mideast Division. (See page 5.)

Contributions.—All categories of stewardship showed a gain except per capita giving to the World Mission Fund. It declined from $12.74 to $12.32, a drop of 42 cents. (See further explanation in the next paragraph.) Another decrease occurred in the count of members dropped for apostasy or as missing, but this was a desirable decrease because it had the effect of boosting membership. (See pages 20, 21.)

Per Capita Formula Revised.—A new procedure has been adopted this year for the figuring of per capita giving in all categories. The reported membership in China and Russia is no longer included in the world total for the figuring of average or per capita giving. The result is an elevation in per capita figures.

The reader who wished to compare per capita giving in 1978 with that of 1977 could revise the 1977 figures by using a world membership of world membership of 2,124,014 instead of 2,185,182, a four-quarter average.

Missionaries.—As the church's global activities have developed from primitive mission service in remote jungles to advanced centers of influence in both emerging and established nations, the General Conference Secretariat has redefined a missionary as one who responds to a call for service in a country other than his homeland. The last table in column 1 on page 2 reflects this change as of 1978.

Languages.—A noticeable drop has occurred in the number of "languages and dialects in which Seventh-day Adventist publications are now in print." The Trans-Africa Division has reported 17 fewer languages in use in Zaire than it did last year. (See page 32.)

The Adventist Presence.—On page 30 a new introduction has been prepared for the section dealing with the international presence of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. A more careful definition of "established work" will now control the count of countries or areas of the world where Adventist work is established. F. Donald Yost

COUNTRIES AND AREAS OF THE WORLD SHOWING WHERE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST WORK IS CURRENTLY ESTABLISHED

Recognizing the need of a standard list of geographical and political divisions of the world which can be used as a basis for checking the different areas in which Seventh-day Adventist work is established, the General Conference Committee voted to use the list of countries and areas published by the United Nations. The following report is based on information given in "Statistical Papers," Series A, vol. XXXI, no. 1, January 1, 1979.

As changes occur in political administration or boundaries of countries or areas, and such changes are recognized and published by the United Nations, this list will be revised accordingly. These changes obviously make comparisons with previous years difficult. Further, such changes do not necessarily indicate the withdrawal of established Seventh-day Adventist work from the territory affected by the change. Recognizing that the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in this list or the absence of others.

The work of Seventh-day Adventists is being carried on in nearly all countries and areas of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: when an organized church meets regularly; when a mission station, health-care facility or school is functioning regularly; or when a regular fulltime denominational worker is based in the country carrying on outreach or soulwinning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbathkeepers, workers traveling through, or temporary service by regular workers, student missionaries or other volunteer workers.

An asterisk (*) denotes a country or area where Seventh-day Adventist work is not currently established. Anyone intimately acquainted with local situations, knowing of a correction that should be made, is invited to write the Director of Archives and Statistics, especially as new work is established.

SUMMARY

Number of countries and areas as recognized by United Nations	218
Estimated population of the world (as of January 1, 1979)	4,205,000,000
Number of countries in which work is carried on by Seventh-day Adventists	190
Number of countries where work is not established	28

NOTE.—The United Nations list no longer contains British Antarctic Territory nor French Southern and Antarctic Territories, where only a few scientists reside. An addition to the list is the Canton and Enderbury Islands; however, this area has no population so we are not counting it in the "Summary" above.
