

Evaluators' Comparative Worksheet

This sheet may be used to record scores for an applicant under different specifications, as sometimes evaluators may (but are not required to) assess an applicant under two different sets of specifications (i.e., Emerging and Recognized, or Recognized and Approved) or may assess an applicant's records center at one level and its archives at a different level.

Records Center – Emerging A section score: ____/8            B section score: ____/10            C section score: ____/13            D section score: ____/69  Total score: ____/100	Archives – Emerging A section score: ____/10            B section score: ____/16            C section score: ____/74  Total score: ____/100
Records Center – Recognized A section score: ____/10            B section score: ____/15            C section score: ____/25            D section score: ____/70  Total score: ____/120	Archives – Recognized A section score: ____/10            B section score: ____/33            C section score: ____/77  Total score: ____/120
Records Center – Approved A section score: ____/20            B section score: ____/16            C section score: ____/25            D section score: ____/109  Total score: ____/170	Archives – Approved A section score: ____/20            B section score: ____/55            C section score: ____/125  Total score: ____/200
Records Center and Archives – Center of Excellence A section score: ____/35            B section score: ____/125            C section score: ____/20            D section score: ____/180  Total score: ____/360	