

Andrews Research Conference 2023

Early Career Researchers in the Arts & Humanities

Call for Papers 2023 May 10-12, 2023

The Office of Research and Creative Scholarship at Andrews University invites graduate students, post-docs, and early career faculty, as well as advanced undergraduate students in Arts and Humanities (inclusive of Theology) to submit an abstract for the 9th annual Andrews Research Conference. The theme for 2023 is Early Career Researchers and Creative Scholars in the Arts & Humanities. We will accept research in the fields of dramatic and performance arts, as well as communications, graphic design, English & other languages, global studies, history, political science, theology, and related disciplines.

The conference will be held in-person on the campus of Andrews University from May 10-12, 2023. Each presenter will be allotted 20-minutes for their oral presentation.

The conference is free for all presenters. Meals and double occupancy lodging for three nights is provided for presenters during the conference. Participants will need to secure their own transportation to and from the conference. Provision may be made for virtual presentations.

Submission Deadline: March 31, 2023

Abstracts (300 words) and additional materials should be submitted on or before March 31, 2023. Submissions will be reviewed by the Program Committee with notification of acceptance given by April 15, 2023.
